TRIBUTE TO NAVAL HERO.

John E. Eopolucci.

Gen. Leonard Wood Garrison, No. 85.
Army and Navy Union, will hold a dance on the evening of April 25 to raise funds for the assistance of the mother of John E. Eopolucci of Washington, first gunner's mate, who was killed when the American steamer. marine April 1.

The dance will be held in the dance

The dance will be held in the dance hall of the marine barracks, 8th and G streets southeast. The United States Marine Corps has contributed the use of the hall and the services of the Marine Band.

Eopolucel was the only member of the gun crew who was not rescued. He thus was the first member of the United States Navy to lose his life in the conflict with Germany. He was the sole support of his mother. The benefit is being planned in honor to his memory. Thomas E. Dwyer, adjutant, is in charge of the arrangements.

Police say that Janson had partici- federate Veterans hold their encamp pated in pro-German talk about the boathouse. Janson said he did this to have fun with his companions, but denies any knowledge of sinking the boat. The boat was recovered on the Virginia side of the river by Robert Cumberland and Mr. Gillies about midnight.

Chairman Robert N. Harper of the reunion committee following the receipt of a letter from Ernest G. Baldwin, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Cumberland and Mr. Gillies about midnight.

Believing that valuable papers are missing Mr. Gillies left here early yesterday morning with Detective Springman to go to Philadelphia to try to find Janson. Following their departure Janson was placed under arrest here. Janson stated Mr. Gillies was in Washington to demonstrate to naval officers a patent in connection with warships. Janson had his employers papers and most of his valuable portable property piled on the shore.

Mr. Kramer stated today that in forming the living copy of Old Glory the services of between 1,000 and 1,500 school children will be employed. NEW YORK, April 14 .- Of the 750,000 persons formerly inhabiting Syria only $50,000 can now be accounted for, acording to authentic advices, it was Holmes at a meeting of the American committee for Armenian and Syrian reief to discuss plans to raise $10,000,000 for the continuance of its work. Miss Holmes, who spent thirty-two years in Turkey, said that 70,000 Syrians had been forced to serve in the Turkish armies.

Two hundred members of the committee were present at the meeting, twenty-three of them having been in Turkey when the atrocities against the Armenians were committed. Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, said that the Turks are friendly to this country, but because of their German alliance cannot demonstrate it.

A committee of forty was appointed to tour the United States and form local committees to collect funds. It was stated that the was has not hindred relief work, all channels in Turkey being still open, with the prospects that they would remain so.
